Opportunities and Program Needs

- DualEnroll.com. Replace paper process with DualEnroll.com and integrate the program with Banner to decrease manual processes.
- Resources. Update the Student/Parent Handbook, Faculty Handbook, and the program website.
- Research. Articulate answers to the following questions: (1) What is the return on invest (ROI) for dual and concurrent enrollment? (2) Who is benefitting from dual enrollment, and who is not? What is the college's role in bridging any gaps? And the high school's role?
- Marketing. Create videos, social media platforms, and resources to market the growing dual enrollment, concurrent enrollment, and early college programs to the community.

- Rebranding. Clarify program terms and definitions.
- “Golden Four.” Expand course offerings at high schools, with a special focus of offering the “Golden Four” at each high school location.
- Pathways. Collaborate with district and high school partners to link high school guided pathways with credential and degree programs at PC.
- Burton School District. Explore opportunity to launch a full-scale Early College in Partnership with Burton School District at Summit Charter Collegiate Academy.
