

Kern CCD Institutional Effectiveness Partnership Initiative Purpose

Consultation Council, March 1, 2022 – Bob Ngo and Corey Marvin

- Make technical assistance teams, called Partnership Resource Teams, available to institutions requesting assistance.
- Enhance professional development opportunities through IEPI’s Specialized Training Program.

<https://www.cccco.edu/About-Us/Chancellors-Office/Divisions/Institutional-Effectiveness/Institutional-Effectiveness-Partnership-Initiative>

Letter of Interest from KCCD

Identified improving Data accuracy and reporting as important parts of improving institutional capacity to make effective decisions in dynamic environment of Higher Ed in state of California. Special emphasis on incorporating SCFF more into operational and strategic planning.

Partnership Resource Team Schedule

- Wednesday March 2, 2022 – Initial Visit with stakeholders
 - Institutional Research Directors
 - Vice Presidents
 - Faculty/Deans/Chairs
 - A&R Directors and Financial Aid Directors
 - Scheduler Team
 - Information Technology Staff
- Wednesday April 20, 2022 – Visit with District PRT team to create Innovation and Effectiveness Plan
 - Bob Ngo, Director of Institutional Research and Effectiveness – District Office
 - Dave Barnett, Interim Deputy Chief Information Officer – District Office
 - Billie Jo Rice, Vice President of Instruction – Bakersfield College
 - Corey Marvin, Vice President of Instruction – Cerro Coso College
 - Primavera Arvizu, Vice President of Student Services – Porterville College
 - Craig Hayward, Dean of Institutional Effectiveness – Bakersfield College
- October 2022 – Follow up Visit

KCCD PRT Members

Name	Home Institution	Current Primary Role
Mojdeh Mehdizadeh	Contra Costa CCD	Executive Vice Chancellor, Education and Technology (Lead)
Anna Badalyan	Los Angeles City College	Dean of Institutional Effectiveness
David Beymer	Hartnell College	Instructor and Athletic Trainer
Alisa Shubb	American River College	Faculty
Gabrielle Stanco	North Orange County CCD	District Director, Research, Planning, and Data Management