	E. Decision Making Document F. Decision Making Evaluation- Mike Carley	items are for information only. 10+1 issues would need the dialog with Consultation Council as well as negotiated items. Michael Carley, Intuitional Researcher presented the results of the district-wide decision making survey. The survey was sent out to previous and current participatory governance members from the three colleges and the district office to gauge how well the decision making process is working. This online survey was divided into three sections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Familiarity with the document and methods of communication • Gauging an understanding of and opinions on the decision making roles of the constituency groups • Open –ended question asking for additional thoughts. A total of 25 out the 60 people who responded, add comments. Please see posted survey for detailed results. ACTION: Presidents to review their charts in the decision making document.		X

Bakersfield Colleges’ biggest concern is the timeframe for faculty to respond to students; not sure that 48 hrs. is adequate. Possibly 72 hrs. would work better to cover the weekend and/or holidays. Matt Crow, CCA President asked if this is a workplace violation. General Counsel stated no since 4B3 is a procedure. This does not affect academic freedom. Council discussed this not being an evaluated procedure but more of a discipline for non-compliance. ACTION: John Means and General Counsel will research the verbiage of: the faculty member teaching an online or hybrid course “shall” or “should”. Deferred. Concerns about priority assignments being correct for students. John Means shared the history of the KCCD Strategic Planning Cycle and process. The longer process from the past is less desirable. Means suggested that more focused writing with steering committee (4-5 people), utilizing the input from the Board of Trustees to share through surveys to all constituency groups. A smaller group can complete the process in a shorter timeframe. The VPs have started looking at the measureable items and logging that data. ACTION: Informing Council will be part of the planning process. Academic Senate to share calendars. Feedback by February meeting. Ed Services to remove “draft” from the top of the calendars.	  X X X	  X
