- a. It was moved by Senator Galvez and seconded by Manager Scott to approve ACTION ITEM: Allocation of SOF Program funds in the amount of $1000 to the WECOMM Club for the WECOMMedy show on Friday, November 20th, 2015.

Discussion: Yaneli Ponce, President of WECOMM, presented a slideshow to the Department on Student Organizations. The presentation gave an overview of the history of WECOMM, and what the club stands for. WECOMM stands for We Communicate, and it is a club/organization for groups of students to do more for their community. The club started at Willow International Community College, branched to Reedley College, and has now branched to the Delano campus. The Delano campus club currently has 28 members, and have completed over 100 hours of volunteer work in the past 9 weeks, but also have more events to volunteer for the rest of the school year. The presentation also gave an overview on the specifications of the show and the purpose of the grant. It is a comedy show that features headlines who have all been on HBO, Carlos Oscar and Darren Carter. The event is open to the entire community. The club will be covering the cost for Darren Carter and the SOF grant is to cover for Carlos Oscar. Additionally, the club will be covering the cost for a DJ for the event. The event will have a five dollar in advance and seven dollar at the door ticket price. The purpose of the event is to publicize for clubs, but to also bring something unique to Bakersfield College, to involve student life, and to bridge the involvement gap between the Delano and Bakersfield College campus. Yaneli also gave a personal performance review as she had been to a show herself, and commented that it was a full house, with the lines wrapping from the place of venue all the way to the parking lot. Finally, a video was shown with material from Carlos Oscar. Director Hidalgo expressed concern in that the idea was not of and for the students, but of the advisor. The notion had then been rejected as the presentation and the personal choice of the students to volunteer shows that it is the students who want this. The department also verified in that the venue secured for the event meets Bakersfield College space requirements, and explained, in response to a question proposed by Yaneli, that the tickets do not have to be made by BC.

The members voted as follows:

Senator Galvez- yes

Manager Scott- yes

The motion passed by majority vote of yes with the votes tallied as 2 yes, 0 no, and 0 abstain.
