

Dear Office,

I have decided not to go through with the position of Director of Public Relations at this time. I really appreciate the opportunity; my family is going through an incredibly challenging and demanding time right now so it's best I spend my time with them. I'm sorry for the inconvenience, but due to these reasons I won't be able to dedicate my time to this position.

Thank you,

Alexandria.