

Library Science Assessment Plan Rev. 9/16/2018

Library Science	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
LIBRB1 - Introduction to Library Research
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Demonstrate an understanding of the legal and ethical issues of information, including documentation and plagiarism.	C		P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Locate relevant information using keywords and controlled vocabulary, Boolean operators, truncation, and other advanced search methods.		C
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Evaluate the credibility and quality of information using established criteria.	C
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Employ effective research strategies to locate appropriate information resources in the library and online to acquire knowledge of a research topic .		C
LIBRB55 - Information Competency Workshops
• 1. Upon completion the student will be able to: Analyze a research topic in order to select key search terms and differentiate between controlled vocabulary and keyword searching.					P
• 2. Upon completion the student will be able to: Analyze research needs in order to create searches for books with the online catalog and eBook interface		C
• 3. Upon completion the student will be able to: Construct searches of the BC library periodical databases to locate scholarly, full-text periodical articles relevant to a research topic.					P
• 4. Upon completion the student will be able to: Construct an effective search statement in Google and manipulate the search results, as well as use Google Books, Google Scholar and other scholarly search engines to obtain reliable web sources relevant to a research topic					P
• 5. Upon completion the student will be able to: Qualify the credibility of internet resources using a set of evaluation criteria.					P
• 6. Upon completion the student will be able to: Evaluate the credibility of print sources using online databases and book resources.				P
• 7. Upon completion the student will be able to: Discriminate between ethical use of sources and plagiarism.					P	