

Alcohol and Other Drug Studies Assessment Plan Rev. 4/21/2020

Alcohol and Other Drug Studies	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
AODSB1 - Introduction to Alcohol and Drug Studies
• 1.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to define theories and vocabulary specific to drug and alcohol studies.					P
• 2.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to evaluate journal articles that pertain to evidence based practice in drug and alcohol studies.					P
• 3.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to analyze historical, legal, and socio-cultural issues pertaining to the practice of substance abuse counseling.					P
AODSB2 - Legal and Ethical Issues in Substance Abuse Counseling
• 1.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to define safety assessment in substance abuse counseling.					P
• 2.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to create documentation appropriate for entry level work in substance abuse counseling.					P
• 3.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to analyze ethical dilemmas using professional codes of conduct to guide their decision making.					P
AODSB3 - Substance Abuse Counseling and Interviewing
• 1.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to exhibit basic substance abuse counseling skills and techniques.					P
• 2.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to formulate open-ended and close-ended questions.					P
• 3.Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to define the dominant theories in substance abuse counseling.					P	