

Administration of Justice Assessment Plan
Rev. 12/4/2020

Administration of Justice	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
ADMJB40 - Law and Democracy
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to demonstrate a fundamental understanding of the core concepts of statutory American law.						P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to apply critical reading, writing, problem solving, and oral communication skills to legal issues and to future legal education.					P	P
ADMJB60 - Arrest and Control Techniques P.C. 832
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to describe and demonstrate a basic understanding of the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to arrest and control techniques.		C				P
• Apply the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to arrest and control techniques.		C				P
• Perform appropriate level critical thinking and analysis related to arrest and control techniques.		C				P
ADMJB61 - PC 832 Firearms Training
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Describe and demonstrate a basic understanding of the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to appropriate use of firearms.		C				P
• Apply the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to the use of firearms.		C				P
• Perform appropriate level critical thinking and analysis related to the appropriate use of firearms.		C				P
ADMJB63 - Power to Arrest (Security Guard Course)
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to describe and demonstrate a basic understanding of the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to a security guard's power to arrest.					P
• Apply the essential elements, concepts, and/or theories related to a security guard's power to arrest.					P
• Perform appropriate level critical thinking and analysis related to the power to arrest.					P
ADMJB72 - Peace Officer's Basic Academy
• Upon completion the student will be able to: List the key points in the development of the United States and California law enforcement systems.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Analyze methods for handling unethical or criminal conduct on the part of a fellow officer and list specific steps to report demeanor.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Describe each of the organizational functions and chain of command structure of a law enforcement agency.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Compare the difference between the "spirit of the law" and "the letter of the law."						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Describe the following types of intent: a) specific, b) transferred, c) general, and d) criminal negligence.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Compare and contrast the difference between "principal" and "accessory" as defined by California law.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Demonstrate the ability to develop sound police reports.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Analyze traffic conditions and describe the necessity to perform traffic control according to California Vehicle Codes.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Demonstrate competency to apply the degree of force allowed by law, court decisions, or agency policies.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Compare the differences between "latent fingerprints" and "plastic fingerprints", through the means by which they are located or developed.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Write reports that conform to accepted professional standards of quality (e.g., recording of all relevant information, use of first person, use of active voice, etc.)						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Demonstrate and describe procedures for safe handling of handguns.						P
• Upon completion the student will be able to: Define the officer's responsibility for assuring the legality of any commitment to custody for: a) court documents, b) parole and probation, c) probable cause arrests (PC 832), and d) inroad prisoner.						P

Administration of Justice Assessment Plan
Rev. 12/4/2020

Administration of Justice	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
ADMJB81 - Skills Training for Security Guards
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: Explain the characteristics of professionalism and responsibility of security guard work.					P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: Describe characteristics of potential problems that security guards may encounter and appropriate responses/action to take					P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: Recite laws and company policy in response to hypothetical situations given several types of post assignments.					P
• 4. Upon completion the student will be able to: Describe and define evidence according to the California Evidence Code.					P
• 5. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: Describe the steps necessary to preserve a crime scene, including restricting access: writing a log; identifying witnesses.					P
• 6. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to: Describe and demonstrate how to sketch and photograph a crime scene.					P	