

Criminology Assessment Plan
Rev. 12/4/2020

Criminology	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
CRIMB1 - Introduction to Criminal Justice
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to identify and illustrate the orderly processing of cases through the justice system from investigation through appeal and exoneration;		C				P
• Demonstrate a fundamental understanding of the core concepts of statutory criminal law as applied to case scenarios from both a prosecutorial and defense perspective.		C			P	P
• Analyze the vital role that American constitutional values of due process, equal protection, and fundamental fairness play in policing, courts and corrections;		C			P	P
• Recognize and display an appreciation for and tolerance of cultural perspectives and differences in America's diverse society.		C				P
CRIMB2 - Criminal Law
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to evaluate the sources of law underlying the substantive criminal law;				C	P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze and evaluate the inchoate offenses concept;				C	P	P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to apply a body of knowledge to analyze crimes against persons from crimes against property by their respective elements;					P	P
• 4. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to evaluate the legal defenses to criminal liability.					P	P
CRIMB3 - Introduction to Evidence
• 1. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to differentiate between the development of the rules of evidence and their application in state and federal courts;					P	P
• 2. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to analyze the use of evidence at criminal trials, appeals, and other court hearings;					P
• 3. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to evaluate the importance of relevant evidence;					P	P
CRIMB4 - Constitutional Criminal Procedure
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to identify and describe the stages in the criminal trial process including pretrial motions.	C				P
• Identify and critically analyze the concepts of due process as found in the 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, and 14th amendments, including right to counsel, bail, jury trial, due process and post conviction motions such as appeals and writs of habeas corpus.	C				P	P
• Describe the history and application of the exclusionary rule in shaping criminal procedure.	C				P	P
• Describe the application of the right to counsel in a criminal case.	C				P
• Describe the application of the right to a jury trial.	C					P
CRIMB5 - Community Relations
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to explain the history and evolution of multiculturalism in the U.S. and the challenges presented by a multicultural society			C			P
• Criticize and assess key issues that pose potential conflict between diverse communities and the courts, police and corrections.			C		P
• Identify and describe the strategies for the administration of justice in a multicultural society			C		P	P
CRIMB6 - Introduction to Transformational Policing
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to analyze studies, data, and other findings regarding conflicts between police and communities of color and the direct impact to African Americans/Black.					P	P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to analyze and assess strategies for restoring trust between police and communities of color, focusing on African-Americans/Black.					P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to analyze Constitutional Policing and the impact of police reform in conjunction with Social Justice concerns focusing on communities of color.					P

Criminology Assessment Plan
Rev. 12/4/2020

Criminology	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
CRIMB7 - Criminal Profiling of Violent Offenders
• 1. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Outline the evolution of the art and science of criminal profiling;						P
• 2. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Identify and discuss the categories of crimes amenable to the profiling process					P
• 3. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Identify and apply the major approaches to criminal profiling to case facts and hypothetical scenarios;					P	P
• 4. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Explain the criminological theories underlying criminal profiling;					P	P
• 5. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Research and apply existing literature and data resources in criminal profiling;					P
• 6. Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to Develop and implement a comprehensive profiling package for an assigned serial offender case.						P
CRIMB8 - Criminal Investigation
• 1. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to identify, discuss and analyze the core concepts, skills, and knowledge underlying effective criminal investigation.						P
• 2. Upon completion of this courses, students will be able to identify, discuss, and apply the basic principles for processing a crime scene.					P	P
• 3. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to identify, analyze, and discuss the types of evidence associated with crimes against property, persons, and public order.					P	P
CRIMB9 - The Juvenile Justice System
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to describe and distinguish the methods employed to measure juvenile crime and victimization;					P
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to identify and describe the role of the juvenile court processes from Intake to Termination;					P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to identify, discuss, and analyze the social policies relating to juvenile treatment and institutionalization.					P	P
CRIMB10 - Organized Crime
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to distinguish between and describe the categories of organized criminal behavior.					P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to compare and contrast the theories underlying the purpose and motivation of those who join organized crime groups.					P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to understand and illustrate the illegal activities and businesses of organized crime.						P
CRIMB12 - Forensic and Scientific Aspects of Evidence
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to identify and apply the core concepts and legal principles associated with forensic science and investigation;		C				P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to identify and apply a minimum of ten areas of forensic specialization to case scenarios;		C			P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to recognize and analyze ethical issues in forensic science.		C				P
CRIMB21 - Introduction to Correctional Administration
• Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to identify and describe the evolving philosophy of punishment within the Corrections sub-system of the Criminal Justice system.	C				P
• Identify and Differentiate clients in each of the types of Correctional institutions, the issues and challenges each type of client presents to a Correctional institution.	C				P	P
• Identify the Alternatives to Punishment and describe their impact on the Criminal Justice System and society at large.	C				P	P
• Identify the innovative programs designed for specific Correctional Institutions and describe their impact on the Corrections client and society at large.	C				P

Criminology Assessment Plan
Rev. 12/4/2020

Criminology	16-17	17-18	18-19	19-20	20-21	21-22
CRIMB22 - Institutional Treatment and Supervision of Offenders
• 1. Upon completion the student will be able to distinguish and discuss the three major perspectives in treatment and supervision of offenders: Academic, Practitioner, Client;					P
• 2. Upon completion the student will be able to recognize and explain effective therapeutic intervention strategies;					P
• 3. Upon completion the student will be able to analyze the proponent and opponent arguments concerning the future of parole.						P
CRIMB23 - Fundamentals of Interviewing and Counseling
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze and apply the facets of the offender/counselor relationship.					P	P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to create and evaluate successful interviewing and interrogation techniques.						P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to create and analyze client classification, treatment, and evaluative reports.					P
CRIMB24 - Probation, Parole and Community Corrections
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to evaluate and analyze the goals, successes, and challenges of probation, parole, and community corrections;						P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze and apply the role that American constitutional values of due process, equal protection, and fundamental fairness play in probation, parole and community corrections;						P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze and evaluate public policy issues and basic research findings concerning treatment needs of special populations in probation and parole casework: (e.g. sex offenders, HIV, developmentally disabled, gang members, high risk offenders).					P
CRIMB50 - Criminal Justice Report Writing
• 1. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to analyze and apply the potential uses of written communication in the job setting of the corrections/criminal justice system.					P
• 2. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to write clearly, concisely, accurately, objectively and logically for criminal justice-related reports.					P
• 3. Upon completion of the course the student will be able to create and organize a cohesive written criminal incident report synthesizing several sources.						P
CRIMB60 - Legal Aspects of Corrections
• 1. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze the court structure and the role of case law in corrections.						P
• 2. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able to analyze prisoners' rights under the First, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments.						P
• 3. Upon successful completion of the course the student will be able evaluate the potential for criminal and civil liabilities of prison officials.						P