1) The Enrollment Management Committee met on Tuesday, March 29. The primary work at this EMC meeting was to move forward on the written Strategic Enrollment Management Plan (SEMP). EMC members focused on fleshing out an Enrollment Process Graphic and an Enrollment Management Timeline. (Both of these elements of the SEMP are designed to clarify the enrollment management processes which occur at Bakersfield College.) The EMC has set a goal of rolling out a draft of the written Strategic Enrollment Management Plan by the end of the Spring 2016 semester. I will be presenting a rough draft of the written Strategic Enrollment Management Plan to the BC College Council on April 8.

2) The EMC Class Size Task Force met on March 17. The Task Force reviewed the ASCCC Document “Setting Course Enrollment Maximums: Process, Roles, and Principles” in order to establish the roles of discipline faculty, curriculum committees, academic senates, bargaining units, and administration in class size decisions. (Highlights from this important document have been attached to this Academic Senate EMC report.) The primary charge of the Class Size Task Force is to compile a fairly complete list of class size issues and concerns, and then to rank these issues and concerns in order of importance. The final meeting of the EMC Class Size Task Force is scheduled for April 28.

3) After compiling the (first draft) list of class size issues and concerns, it is clear that there are many significant problems with the current class size decision-making process at Bakersfield College. In my end-of-year report to the BC Academic Senate, I will recommend that the BC Academic Senate work with CCA and BC administration to craft a more effective process (and more specific contract language) for determining appropriate and reasonable class sizes.

4) I have requested that Academic Senate President Steven Holms arrange a meeting with the BC President and Executive Vice-President to discuss how the BC administration and BC Academic Senate can work together effectively to address class size issues and concerns. President Christian and Executive Vice-President Gomez-Heitzeberg have agreed to participate in this meeting.

5) I am finishing up my two-year stint as Faculty Co-Chair of the Enrollment Management Committee, so there is an opening for a faculty leader with an interest in enrollment management to head the Enrollment Management Committee as Faculty Co-Chair for the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years. A call for service will be going out shortly from Tarina Perry, so please consider stepping forward to take on this important faculty leadership role. (The EMC meets once a month. This year, the EMC met on the fourth Tuesday of the month from 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., but these times can be adjusted, if necessary.)

6) The Enrollment Management Roundtable originally scheduled for April 7 is currently being rescheduled (and may occur on April 14 instead). This final EMC Roundtable will feature Steven Watkin, who is lining up roundtable participants to inform the campus community about efforts in outreach, Summer Bridge, and dual enrollment.

The Professional Development Committee would like to just remind all Senators that faculty should be encouraged to turn in their flex activities when they are completed. Many Adjunct faculty are already finished with their 2 hours for extra pay.

Additionally, Ph.D. coursework does not count as flex hours. Senators are encouraged to remind faculty and their own deans that this is not acceptable by the state.

A email will be sent to all faculty to remind them of these two points.

CCA (Freeman)-Report submitted as written by Greenwood

Mar. 28, 2016
Dear Colleagues,

We have some important news to share with you regarding health benefits.

As you know from recent SISC college presentations, all employees are being asked to consider the pros and cons of staying in the SISC Self-Insured health plan compared with the pros and cons of joining the much larger SISC statewide pool. The three employee associations (faculty, classified, and management) must agree on one option or the other due to our dwindling health plan reserves. Enclosed is a quick comparison of staying self-funded versus choosing the larger SISC pool.

To stay self-insured, we are contractually obligated to have health plan reserves of 32.5 percent, or an estimated $7.2 million for 2015-16 (we began 2015-2016 with $2.8 million in reserves). This means employees would have to pay into the reserves until the account is back on solid financial ground. If we move to the larger SISC pool, no reserve payment would be necessary. We’d be expected to pay for the cost of the plan we choose, with the option of choosing among four plans of varying coverage and costs. Once we join the pool, we will no longer be able to make autonomous decisions regarding administrative changes to plans but would need to abide by the decisions of the SISC board, a board comprised of district administrators of participating schools.

SISC has estimated that the employee’s cost of a plan in the pool that is similar to the coverage we have now would be about $300 per month. To stay self-insured, and to pay back the health plan reserves within a year, district officials have estimated a total monthly cost for the employee of about $600 per month, a prohibitive cost for most of us. For that figure to be reduced, the health plan reserves would have to be paid back over several years.

After a careful examination of costs, CCA has proposed an option to the district for remaining self-insured in which all employees would pay $140 a month in pre-tax dollars and the district would pay...
$140 per employee a month, for a total of $280 a month per employee, to start repaying the health insurance reserves fund. The district also would continue to pay its contractual obligation of $1,212.54 per month for each employee’s health plans, a total of approximately $20 million per year.

We estimate that after four years of payments, we will have restored the required reserves amount. While no one likes the idea of paying for health insurance, we believe this proposal is one possible option for staying self-insured.

We are waiting to hear if trustees will approve this proposal. If they do approve it, faculty and CSEA would know how much staying self-insured would cost compared to the cost of the plans in the pool, and this would allow both groups to decide which direction they prefer. Once that decision is made, negotiators would be able to start the process of selecting health plans.

If trustees do not approve this proposal, that decision also would tell us where we stand. We will keep you posted on what we hear, but we wanted you to know that we are working on your behalf to come up with possible options. We also will send a survey out to all faculty members and retired faculty to hear your feedback on this important issue. While we want to know how all faculty feel, as you know, only CCA members as of Feb. 22, 2016 will be able to vote and decide this and any other proposed contract changes during the spring CCA election set for April 20-21.

In other election news, it appears we also may have a draft agreement for CCA members to vote on regarding faculty working in prisons or correctional facilities. During our last negotiations session on Fri., Mar. 18, CCA and Vice Chancellor of Human Resources Abe Ali agreed on a draft memorandum of understanding, or MOU, on this issue.

Our next negotiations session is set for Friday, Apr. 15. Sincerely,
Kathy Freeman KCCD CCA President

Ann Marie Wagstaff Negotiator Porterville College
Matt Crow Negotiator

Nicole Celaya Adjunct Negotiator Porterville College

KCCD has greater control over health plan cost and plan choices.
SISC board controls the monthly premium amounts, health plan costs

No changes occur to current health plan coverage unless these are negotiated and approved by CCA
SISC Pool Exceptions to current health plan coverage would occur (see the list below).

SISC says health care costs could be subject to fluctuation due to smaller employee pool.
SISC says health care costs could remain steady due to larger employee pool.

Employees would agree to remain self-funded by September.
Employees would agree to choose plans in the larger SISC pool by September.

Note: According to SISC, a move to the SISC pool would be permanent. We could not move back to a SISC Self-Insured or self-funded plan.

SISC Pool Exceptions:
- Emergency room co-pay increases from $50 to $100 (waived if admitted).
- Chiropractic and physical therapy services would require pre-authorization by American Specialty Health (ASH) review. The current plan does not require pre-authorization.
- Transplants and bariatric surgeries are covered if done in SISC-designated Centers of Medical Excellence; patients would receive travel benefits.
- Therapy services for autism would be added through ABA (Applied Behavior Analysis). (Autism is not covered in the current plan.)
- Hearing aid coverage changes from $1,000 every 36 months in the current plan to $700 every 24 months.
- Inpatient surgery for hip, knee, and spine must occur in a Blue Distinction Plus facility.
  - X-rays, lab tests, DME (durable medical equipment), and physical medicine services (chiropractic, acupuncture, and physical and occupational therapy) only will be covered if done through a network provider.
  - Custom molded orthotics (therapeutic shoes or inserts) are limited to two pairs per calendar year. (These are unlimited in the current plan.)
  - Out-of-network limits to be aligned with SISC standard. SISC pool will pay $600 per day for a non-contracting hospital. (Current plan has no limit.)
  - Outpatient prescriptions would be limited to SISC pool list to limit costs. (Current plan has fewer prescription limits.)

Fitzgerald shared that SGA is holding conversations regarding an interest in having Public Safety carry firearms. They are surveying how students feel about this issue and it is apparent that most state “we want an armed presence”. SGA is looking into possibly seeking outside support for this effort.
