Digital Design & Communications (DDC) and Computer Operations & Development Education (CODE)

Advisory Board Meeting

November 3, 2017 @ 12:00 pm @ GHHS Library Media Center

Outcome:

Time	Agenda Item	Discussion/Decision/Action	Who/When	Notes:
12:05	Welcome	Introduction of members and DDC/CODE student representatives	Apolinar Marroquin	introduce our new board members that are Skyping, Nolan Guzman from Monterey Bay University major in computer science(offering a presentation and do workshops with our CODE kids) Erik Bartlett major in computer science
12:10	Intro to CODE	Course of Study	Apolinar Marroquin
12:15	"Quick Learning"	Industry Overview	Les Pinter	Briefing his background story, attached is her story. Universal Literacy need to be changed to Computer Literacy He created and sold Microsoft word to Bill Gates
12:20	Recent Events	Warner Bros/NY Film School Field Trip Galaxy 9 experience	DDC Students CODE students	We saw backlots, sound stages, the batcave, Harry Potter Museum, The Prop house, Costumes from DC Movies. After WB we went on a tour of NY Film School, we learned how to enroll, what to expect and we got to see each floor of the school and what they offer.

Time	Topic	Details	Presenter	Notes
				Freshmen CODE went to the Galaxy Showcase, to promote their pathway to incoming freshmen.
12:23	NAF update	PLTW Update NAF/MIT Lenovo Scholar App Contest has Started	Dean Morris Janice Rodriguez	CODE classes for all 4 years is Project Lead The Way classes. These classes are being taught and written and by the teachers. The teachers are taken courses online and writing their own syllabus. Their first year is separated into 4 units 1. Block Coding Programming 2. Tech Coding 3. Python 4. Project Our CODE Students our entered into a Lenovo app competition
12:28	Business Leaders	Roles of an Advisory Board Recruiting for CODE Advisory Board	Ruben Alvarez/Jim Carson	If the Board Members can help/ shadow students, be there to answer questions. Lenovo winners will be getting a cash reward and each student will be receiving laptops
12:33	Upcoming Pathway Events	-CODE Maker's Space Qualcomm/SDSU - DDC & CODE [Spring]	-Board participation	-Offer a course outline for CODE that will help the students.

	March - App contest presentations & panel judging		-Janice Rodriguez	-Maybe reach out to Cal State Bakersfield or Fresno State to be representatives on our Board. -Has anyone done research about video or web-design need a 4 year degree? My brother-in-law received a Bachelors in Animation from the design program at san Jose State
12:40	Other/Whip-around	Discussion/Feedback	-Board participation Jim Carson	We are promoting our advisory board to give us their inputs and ideas for our Makerspace in Computer Science.
	Next Meeting	January 26th, 2018

Meeting/Community Norms

- Be fully present (no cell phones, no grading papers, etc.)
- Be mindful of equality of ideas, making room for all voices
- Jointly develop agendas and facilitate meetings
- Follow agenda and use a "parking lot" for items that come up
- Begin and end on time
- Use periodic "whips" to assure all voices are heard