WASC/ACCJC Accreditation Standard I.A

NOTE: This policy is required by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC)/Accrediting Commission of the Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) accreditation standards. The accreditation standard requires that “the mission describes the institution’s broad educational purposes, its intended student population, the types of degrees and other credentials it offers, and its commitment to student learning and student achievement.”

An institutional mission defines the broad-based educational purposes the District seeks to achieve and the students it intends to serve, as well as the parameters under which programs can be offered and resources allocated.

It is the discretion of the Board of multi-college districts whether or not to include individual college missions a board policy.

❖ From current KCCD Policy 1B titled Vision

1B3 Mission

The mission of the Kern Community College District is to provide outstanding educational programs and services that are responsive to our diverse students and communities. To accomplish this mission, we will:

- Provide academic instruction to promote fulfillment of four-year college transfer requirements and encourage degree and/or certificate acquisition in our surrounding communities.
- Provide workforce skills training through Career and Technical Education programs.
- Provide basic skills education and student services programs to enable students to become successful learners.

- Establish partnerships with businesses and governmental entities as well as other educational institutions to advance economic development.
- Improve the quality of life of our students and communities through broad-based general education courses.
- Prepare students with the skills to function effectively in the global economy of the 21st century.
- Anticipate and prepare to meet challenges by continually assessing and prioritizing programs, services, and community needs.

NOTE: It is the discretion of the Board whether or not it wishes to state a specific time frame for evaluation and revising the mission.

The mission is evaluated and revised on a regular basis.
