Guided Pathways September Webinar Series

August 2018

Dear Colleague,

The ASCCC Guided Pathways Task Force Webinar Series will kick off on Thursday, September 13 with a special webinar live from the ASCCC Guided Pathways Liaison Training Session at the ASCCC Academic Academy in San Francisco. This series of webinars is designed to provide additional support and information for faculty doing the implementation work for guided pathways at our colleges. The series is designed to support faculty but is open to anyone interested in guided pathways. A schedule of webinars, topics, and registration links for September is below. All webinars are held from 12:30-1:30 pm on the date indicated.

Thursday, September 13 12:30pm - 1:30pm

“Defining the Role of a Guided Pathways Liaison”

What does it mean to be a Guided Pathways Liaison? This webinar is focused on supporting your college’s appointed liaison; however any faculty doing guided pathways work is welcome to attend.

Wednesday, September 19 12:30pm - 1:30pm

“Using Data to Make the Case I: Understanding Key Performance Indicators”

Faculty engagement with student performance data can have a major impact on your colleagues’ views of the guided pathways design principles and potential outcomes. Join the ASCCC Guided Pathways Task Force for a look at the key performance indicators (KPIs) colleges were asked to examine as a part of their guided pathways work. How can KPIs be used to help “make the case” for guided pathways from a faculty point of view?

Tuesday, September 25 12:30pm - 1:30pm

“Using Data to Make the Case II: Beyond Key Performance Indicators”

Your faculty have reviewed your key performance indicators and are inspired to make change, but that’s not the end of the story. In this webinar, Guided Pathways Task Force members will discuss additional data metrics useful for designing strategies and structures at your college that support guided pathways.
