

I am interested in becoming the student activities manager because I think it is important for students to have activities to help distract them from the stresses of college life. I also would love to learn managerial skills and believe this opportunity would help me prepare for my career goal of becoming an environmental resource manager. I have some leadership skills thanks to being involved with FFA when I was younger and from being involved with the Bakersfield College Agriculture Club. While I have been involved with the Ag Club I have organized and managed multiple events, including: homecoming carnival game, creating and building the homecoming float, the carnival game for the Halloween ball, letters to vets for the vet fest, garden fest carnival game and garden fest BBQ raffle. These are some of the chances I have had to grow my management skills and leadership skills. I am creative, smart, and a problem solver. I work well with others and am willing to bend and flex. The reason behind having a student government at Bakersfield college is to give the student body a voice.
