Visibility for Bakersfield College's Work

Bakersfield College's work is gaining visibility locally, statewide, and nationally. Two recently published pieces highlight the college's work to meet the needs of low-income, first generation, students of color:

- October 15: BC Making Strides in the Lives of Students (Jean Fuller, Bakersfield Californian's Community Voices) – attached for your reference
- October 29: More Latinx Students Gain Diplomas on Time Thanks to Early College (Sonya Christian, The Hechinger Report) – attached for your reference

BC Named a 2019 Champion of Education

The Campaign for College Opportunity has awarded BC a 2019 Champion of Education for exemplary work in implementing the Associate Degree for Transfer. The KCCCD 2018-19 Degree Awards Summary, revised on September 11, 2019 indicates BC awarded 1,497 Associate Degrees for Transfer in 2018-19, a 67% increase over 2017-18 awards and a 637% increase since 2014.

See attached for the CCO award letter and KCCCD ADT report.

LAO Visit to Baccalaureate Program

On Wednesday, October 23, a representative from the Legislative Analyst’s Office visited Bakersfield College to assess our Bachelor of Science in Industrial Automation program. In preparation for the visit, the team compiled a report, uploaded for reference, detailing:

- Why BC selected Industrial Automation and how the program meets workforce demands
- Program structure and curriculum designed to address upper division competencies
- Sustainable program staffing and cost management
- Whole-college student support services, including counseling and library services
- Application and enrollment trends across all offerings, including a student profile
- Intentional recruitment strategies to grow the program
- Program outcomes, including employment and wages
- Student and employer feedback as collected through surveys and interviews

The Bachelor of Science in Industrial Automation report is attached for your review. An excerpt from the report: Program enrollment from 2016 to 2019 shows marked growth:

	2016-17	2017-18	2018-19	2019-20

BC SouthWest Move

Bakersfield College SouthWest has relocated to the new campus on the south end of the CSU Bakersfield Campus. The new location allows for expanded course offerings and room for student supports in modular units while the permanent building is constructed. See attached for a Community Voices piece from the Bakersfield Californian by BC student Jasmen Taylor about BC SouthWest: Bridge Being Built Between Two Higher Education Leaders.
