The KCCD position was presented to Chancellor’s Consultation Council:

- Position was introduced four years ago on May 9, 2006 as part of a long range plan to effectively organize and lead the District to implement the KCCD Strategic Plan, and Annual District Goals Established by the Board of Trustees, and the Chancellor’s Plan of Work. (source: Kern Community College District Office Future New Positions, 5/9/06)
- Introduced as a general fund position to be established after the 2006-07 budget year (source: Kern Community College District Office Future New Positions, 5/9/06)
The KCCD communication and governmental relations position was presented to Chancellor’s Consultation Council and the Board of Trustees in the Adopted 2007-08 budget, as well as the 2008-09 and 2009-10 budget process:

- Position was budgeted in 2007-08 (source: Kern Community College District 2007-08 Adopted Budget Summary District Operations Budget)
- Position hiring was deferred in 2007-2008
- Position was budgeted in 2008-09 and carried forward into 2009-10

Timing for implementing this position:

- This position is the last piece in the Chancellor’s Five-year Plan for the district
  - Earlier positions in this plan included:
    - Vice Chancellor of Educational Services
    - District Director of Institutional Research
    - Human Resources Managers assigned to Colleges
    - District Grant Writing Position
    - District General Counsel
- Communication and Governmental Relations position is in the 2009-10 budget
- Communication and Governmental Relations position hiring was delayed to spring semester to accommodate Chancellor’s participation in screening and hiring the Cerro Coso Community College President and the General Counsel positions

The KCCD Associate Chancellor of Communication & Governmental Relations position (ACCGR) directly addresses the needs, initiatives and strategies presented in the KCCD Strategic Plan, which was adopted by the Board of Trustees on September 7, 2006:

- The ACCGR position supports the Communication Value of the Kern Community College District, which reads:
  - Communication In order to generate an environment of trust in which individuals can work together successfully, information is to be freely shared throughout the District using multiple communication channels. Effective communication involves stating facts and opinions clearly, listening critically, asking for necessary clarifications, and providing feedback that is respectful of others’ opinions and sensibilities. At all levels, we have the responsibility to communicate openly and honestly as receivers and senders of information.
- The ACCGR position directly addresses four KCCD Strategic Plan Initiatives. They are as follows:
  - Initiative 1 — Greater responsiveness to community needs through programs offered, the establishment of college areas of particular strength, and area workforce development
    - Strategies to address Initiative 1
      - Strategy 1 -- Facilitate cooperative activities with business, industry, government, and other educational institutions to assess and, as appropriate, address community workforce development and training needs
The implementation work plan may include:

- Development of improved communication
- Establishment of regular communication with chambers of commerce, business/government representatives, and other educational institutions

- Strategy 3 – Market, advertise, and brand existing and proposed KCCD college programs

- Initiative 3 - Increased funding for KCCD functions
  - This was seen as a significant issue by the District and community leaders because the District is mandated to provide services to its students and communities in the face of sometimes insufficient State support.
  - Funding also was seen as important by employee and student survey respondents, with almost 75% indicating this issue as “very high priority” or “high priority.” Overall, it ranked in fourth place, but the administrative group had it in second place, and the students put it in first place.

- Strategy 6 – Engage in legislative advocacy
  - The implementation work plan may include:
  - Advocacy activities and development of advocacy support
  - Tracking legislation and supporting laws and initiatives beneficial to community colleges
  - Implementation of partnerships with other community college districts, educational levels, and business/industry to advocate for common interests
  - Expected outcomes:
    - An active advocacy program which results in legislation and/or regulatory change beneficial to the KCCD
    - Partnerships with other community college districts, educational levels, and business/industry to advocate for common interests

- Initiative 4 – Creation and maintenance of trust between employee groups, the colleges, and the District Office
  - It is significant that this was one of the chief items identified by KCCD and community leaders in the September 2004 strategic issues identification forum. Further, it was the highest priority issue selected by both faculty and classified employees, and by KCCD overall, in the subsequent employee and student strategic issues survey. It was selected as “very high priority” or “high priority” by over 80% of the respondents.
  - Perceptions of trust refer to issues which relate not only to matters of integrity, but to communication, effective operations, competence, and, possibly most critically, a common vision of KCCD and its future.

- Strategy 2 – Implement systems and processes which are standardized, transparent, responsive, and compassionate
  - The implementation work plan may include:
    - Documentation of decision-making processes
    - Wide distribution of critical process descriptions
    - Establishment of more effective, timely, and clear employee communication systems
Initiative 5 – Establish adequate and effective communication throughout the KCCD

- Although this initiative is closely related to Initiative 4, regarding trust, it was identified by the KCCD and community leaders as well as the employee and student issues survey respondents as being important but having a somewhat lower priority. It was selected as “very high priority” or “high priority” by 73.1% of the respondents.
- The KCCD and community leaders saw the communications issue primarily in terms of inconsistencies among departments and instructional programs within the District, possibly placing KCCD college programs at a competitive disadvantage as compared with other educational providers, a situation which could result in reduced funding.
- This issue is closely related to many other matters, such as governance, vision, and organizational structure.

- Strategies to address Initiative 5
  - Strategy 1 – Identify and implement principles of effective communication as well as the expectation that employees adopt them as standard practice
  - The implementation work plan may include:
    - Employee training on effective communication
    - Establishment of the practice among employees that statements and opinions that are communicated to colleagues and/or students are supported by information that is open, consistent, and subject to examination
  - Expected outcomes:
    - Widespread understanding and practice by KCCD employees of the principles of effective communication.
    - Accurate and effective information and communication District-wide
  - Strategy 2 – Maintain communication which is ongoing, timely, accurate, and, as appropriate, available to all, and implement structural changes and/or administrative actions to improve and maintain communication effectiveness
  - The implementation work plan may include:
    - Actions to improve communication such as:
      - Communication from leadership such as regular email reports and condensed minutes of Chancellor’s cabinet and Board meetings
      - Frequent District-wide discussions on matters of interest and significance to employees, students, and communities
      - KCCD and college calendars for on and off-campus meetings
      - Vehicles for more effective communication among the colleges, such as a District-wide college hour, open forums, and convocations
• Implementation of the practice that relevant information is to be shared, including notification of imminent matters
• Publicizing activities, decisions, and accomplishments – personal and professional – of current and former employees
• Institution of a central information clearinghouse which would review potentially incomplete and/or inaccurate material and correct it if needed
• Utilization of effective communications technology which accessible to employees, students, and communities, and training on the optimum use of technological communication tools and methods
  o Expected outcomes:
    ▪ Employees informed about issues concerning them, their colleagues, and the KCCD
    ▪ Employees familiar with their professional colleagues across the KCCD and engaged in professional dialogue with them
    ▪ Accurate and effective information and communication District-wide
  o Strategy 3 – Implement measures to improve the effectiveness of communication with students and with the public
  o Expected outcome:
    ▪ The existence of programs and initiatives designed to improve communication among the colleges, students, and our communities

The KCCD Strategic Plan, which outlined the need for increased communication and governmental relations, was a communal process of all employee groups and colleges:

• Creation of the KCCD Strategic Plan was a district-wide process involving employees from all colleges and the district office and with representatives of all employee groups. Process for its creation of initiatives and strategies with employee input was as follows:
  o Identification of strategic issues
    ▪ In early fall 2004 KCCD and community leaders met for the purpose of identifying the major strategic issues facing KCCD. This resulted in a list of 19 issues which subsequently became 11 major and 13 subsidiary issues.
    ▪ Survey of KCCD employees and students
      • KCCD employees and students were asked in a survey to rate each of the 11 major issues, indicating for each the priority they would assign to it.
