

PORTERVILLE COLLEGE
STRATEGIC PLANNING SUB-COMMITTEE
(of College Council)

DEFINITION

Strategic planning is defined as “a continuous and systematic process where decisions are made about intended future outcomes, how outcomes are to be accomplished, and how success is measured and evaluated.”

CHARGE

The two main charges of the Strategic Planning Sub-Committee relate to general review of the overall college planning and program review process.

Planning Responsibility

- The Strategic Planning Sub-Committee is charged with defining and evaluating the process of college-wide planning, monitoring the completion of the goals and objectives within the college’s Strategic Plan, and assuring the alignment of other planning documents as related to the Strategic Plan.
- Recommend modifications to the Strategic Plan as appropriate to the College Council (CC).

Program Review Responsibility

- The Strategic Planning Sub-Committee is charged managing the process of program reviews, updating forms as needed including timelines, and align the Strategic Planning Calendar to the Budget Calendar.

MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Strategic Planning Sub-Committee is appointed by the CLC and comprised of faculty, classified, student, and administrative representatives.
