To whom it may concern, I am a student of limited means. I work part time to support myself and put myself through school as best as possible. Due to my work schedule, I am only on campus for my courses and when they conclude I leave to get back to work. I am not on campus enough to utilize any of the services or benefits of the program. It is with this understanding that I am truly unable to utilize the programs and services that this does not make sense for me to incur this expense when can go toward more necessary items such as transportation between BC and my workplace.
