

1. Why are you interested in being appointed to this position?

A Senate has the responsibility to actively engage in representing the needs, concerns and ideas of students. Being a Senator-at-Large will enable me to engage in improving student access, promoting student success, as well as aid the student government with connecting with the student body. Overall, being a senator will allow me to impact and enrich my fellow students college experience,

2. What skills do you have to be successful in this position?

Communication is one of the most important skills to have when serving the student body. The ability to collaborate with my peers. Critical thinking, computer basics, as well as problem solving are all skills that I have that will allow me to be successful in this position.

3. Why does Bakersfield College have a student government?

A student government is meant to serve the student body. The student government uplifts the students and provides them with a voice. Meaning that the student government acts as a way to make students feel more involved in school and allows them to have a say in what is happening around the school. The student government of Bakersfield College is meant to better the students' college experience.